3. Provide a short paragraph about your ethos/mission statement for including children and young people with Special Educational Need and Disability (SEND). How do you aim to meet the unique needs of the child?	I provide a secure safe and happy environment in which every child is welcomed valued and treated with respect. I offer equal chances for each child to learn and develop to their full potential taking into account the child's age, stage of development, individuality and ability.
4. How do you identify that a child is not meeting appropriate age related milestones and what do you do in this case? How do you find out what matters to the child and their family?	Through daily observations and referring to the development matters early years foundation stages framework. Also by talking to the child's family to ensure what is important for them.
5. How do you promote positive relationships and ensure good, ongoing communication with families? How will families know what progress their children are making, how to access additional support and what they can do at home to help?	Continued good relationship with the child and their families is key on my list. I keep them updated on a daily bases to ensure good positive relations.
6. How will you communicate with other providers who care for a child, or with providers who will be caring for the child? How do you support children to experience a smooth transition to school or a different situation?	I will keep open communications between all settings and talk to the child's previous / new key worker to ensure the child feels safe and comfortable within their new surroundings.
7. How do you provide an enabling environment for all the children in your care? Are there quiet areas and fully accessible spaces? What other adjustments can you make? What about the physical environment in and outside your setting?	I ensure all children feel safe secure and comfortable within and outside of my setting. So they feel free to explore the environment around them. I observe them and anticipate their needs and will always reassure them that I am there for them.
8. What qualities, skills and experience do you (and your staff) have to support a child's unique needs?	I always talk and listen to the child with patience and understanding whilst providing a happy fun loving atmosphere for them.
