

Autism Advisory Team: Parent Virtual Seminar With Robyn Steward

Developing positive friendships and the Ladder of Trust.

Barnet Autism Advisory Team are very pleased to welcome Robyn Steward. Robyn is Autistic and has been delivering fun, informative, and practical training to professionals and parent/support groups for over 15 years.

She has written three books: The Independent Woman's Handbook for Super Safe Living on the Autistic Spectrum; The Autism Friendly Guide to Periods and The Autism Friendly Guide to self-employment.

Robyn is the co-host of BBC Sounds 1800 seconds on Autism. She is interested in other people's experiences and has co-authored a few academic papers.

Robyn has nine other disabilities. She came out of school with no GCSEs .

Robyn is also a musician, and has performed around the world. She has a regular residency at Cafe OTO in East London.

You can find out more about Robyn here <https://www.robysteward.com/>

More about Robyn

Parent/ Carers and Professionals welcome.
Priority for questions will be given to Parents/ Carers

When: 10:30 and 18:30 on Wednesday 08 June 2022 (90-minute seminar)

Where: Online

The course is free, but it is essential that parents/carers register
Please use these links to register:

Register for 10:30

Register for 18:30