

Waltham Forest Special Education Needs and/or Disability Information, Advice and Support Service (SENDIASS)

We are a free, confidential and impartial service for parents, carers, children and young people (up to 25 years old).

Our trained staff can give you legally based advice, information and support on educational matters relating to special educational needs and disabilities, including health and social care.

We aim to provide information and support to enable parents, carers, children and young people to:

- Fully participate in discussions and make informed decisions
- Express their views and wishes about education and future aspirations
- Promote independence, empowerment and self-advocacy
- Develop positive relationships with schools, colleges, the local authority and voluntary organisations to achieve positive outcomes.

Visit our website for more information about services we provide, how to get in touch, search our wide range of information resources and find out about our latest opportunities www.walthamforestsendiass.org.uk
