

Findability

Bristol's Local Offer

www.findabilitybristol.org.uk

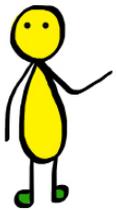

A website for disabled young people and young people with special educational needs.

Findability
is a website.

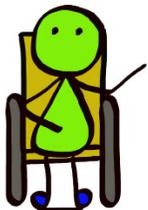

It is for:

children and young people with special educational needs or a disability from birth to 25 years old.

families of children and young people with special educational needs or a disability.

people who work with children or young people with special educational needs or disabilities.

Findability is for people who live in Bristol.

It has information on:

- ★ fun things to do in Bristol
- ★ schools and colleges
- ★ help to find a job
- ★ people who can give you support and advice

Findability has information on what happens after you leave school.

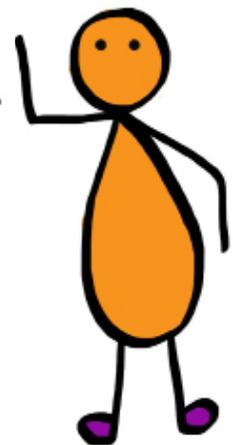

We call this 'preparing for adulthood'.

You can look at Findability on a computer, tablet or mobile phone.

You can find the website by searching for
'findability bristol'
or typing
www.findabilitybristol.org.uk

Tell us what you think!

You can email us to tell us:

- ✓ why you like findability
- ✓ you can't find the information you want
- ✓ you have an idea of how we can make findability better

Our email address is sendplus@bristol.org.uk