

The BIG Check In

We have set up the “Big Check In” with and led by people who draw on health and social care support, because we believe it is important to maintain an independent public record of how disabled people and those who require care and support experience accessing health and social care.

It will be used to increase transparency and to influence and challenge future policy and practice.

By sharing your experiences and views you will help to protect people’s rights and lives.

share your views HERE