

Inclusion North Election News

This is the third election news update from Inclusion North.

There are lots of elections happening in the North East this year. These are on 2nd May 2024. They are

- Local council elections
- Combined Authority elections
- Police and Crime Commissioner elections

Inclusion North have written an Easy Read guide to these different elections. It tells you what they are for and why they are important.

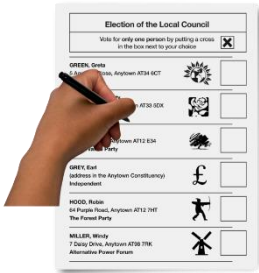

You can download the guide from Inclusion North's website

<https://bit.ly/3vURgUM>

Or you can ring us on 0113 244 4792 and ask us to post you a copy.

6 councils in the North East will have a local election. They are Hartlepool, Gateshead, Newcastle, North Tyneside, South Tyneside and Sunderland.

There are 2 Combined Authority elections happening. You vote in the one where you live. That will be either Tees Valley or the North East.

There are 3 police services in the North East. They are

- Northumbria
- Durham
- Cleveland

There will be an election for a Police and Crime Commissioner for each police service area.

You can find out who you can vote for by putting your postcode into the Who Can I Vote For website

<https://whocanivotefor.co.uk/>