

Widget version of Short Breaks Statement for children and young people

- A short break is for children and young people with a SEN or disability
- A short break allows you to
- Get to do activities with your family on your own or with others for a few hours or for longer
- Meet new people
- Short break are fun
- You will be safe and well looked after
- Your family get to do things they want to do
- You will feel more independent and confident

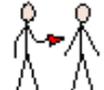

For more information contact please call the SEND Partnership Service on 01225 394382 or email send_partnershipservice@bathnes.gov.uk

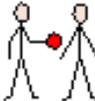

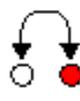

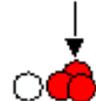

A short break is for children and young people with a Education,

Health and Care plan or a disability.

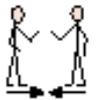

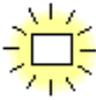

A short break allows you to:

Get to do activities on your own or with others for a few hours or for longer.

Meet new people

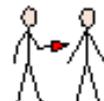

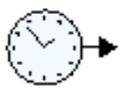

Short breaks are fun

You will be safe and well looked after

Your family will get to do things they want to do

You will feel more independent and confident