Support for your journey to employment

Along the way we will complete a Vocational Profile to get to know you well and put together a Development Plan mapping out steps needed to move you closer to employment. We may support you in the following ways, where relevant:

- Good quality, time limited work experience to build skills.
- Support writing CVs and completing application forms.
- Supported internships, apprenticeships and traineeships.
- Applying for jobs, support at interviews, pre-employment checks and travel training.
- In-work support for you and your employer including help with reasonable adjustments, workplace assessments and compulsory training.
- Signposting to other support, such as benefits advice, relevant training or Access to Work funding.

Alternatively, if you are already in work and have a disability or long term health condition and are struggling to manage with the demands of your role or you feel your employer is not treating you fairly, we can provide you and your employer with support in your workplace.
